If you know that you can't make it to vote on election day, Saturday 7 September, vote early.

Your vote is a valuable thing, and all enrolled Australian citizens aged 18 and over are required by law to vote. So if you're going to be working all day, or unable to make it to a polling place in your state or territory on election day, make sure you vote early. You can apply for a postal vote, or vote at any early voting centre.
